

Yeah.
As much as I hate to admit it...

Mariko

Always
at the scene

Getting
more
interested

While good
songs and
collaborations are important.

They're
meaningless
unless more
voices are drawn in and become passionate
solely for
that idol.

I
should
but not
of
the
City

In the long run, those are the notes who will spend the most money.

The notes who are always there ensure that Marioka's lives will be full of excitement.

...but how many passionate notes will be there for them at the Ramen Festival?

Meanwhile, Iorio has good songs, flashy looks, and popularity on social networking sites...

capturing the hearts of fans is a different story

Even if they have the financial advantage,

As frustrating
as it may be,
he was right.
Attending lives
in person is essential.

The existence of "pink tickets" is crucial for gaining more passionate
fans.

In order to attract
young notes,
I'll create a
group on a social networking
site that they like
to use.

COMMON MISTAKES/Million Doll

(Group Guidelines)

My Board is where the "MillionDollBoard DOL" editor will occasionally explain the terminology that appears in Million Doll. These are extremely subjective definitions, as at times they will differ from the real definition. We recommend that taking these into account.

[1:1] ♦ Million Doll Wota Terminology ♦

Chapter 18 is the first time we see the face of Suuko's sister (the normal outgoing girl)?

1: Regulars [Omaitsu Wota]

Omaitsu is an abbreviation of "omae itsumo iru na" (you're always here).

Day or night, weekday or weekend, no matter where, they will be there.

2: Single vs. Group Support

When it comes to an idol unit, if you only like one of them then it's called tan-oshii single support. If you like all of them then it's called hako-oshii box (as in a livehouse) support.

3: Serial Number [Renban]

This is named after the serial number on tickets. Doing renban with someone means attending a live or event together, or lining up for a handshake event together. It's hard to get really into events when you're alone, but using renban as a chance to get to know someone can lead to a new friendship.
